REPORTS ON WORLD PHARMACIST DAY CELEBRATION

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 25/09/2023

No. of Participants: 254

Venues: Satana

Pharmacists, serving humanity through patient care, are at the forefront of providing medicines and health advice to many people. Not only this, but pharmacists also play an important role in hospitals and society, as their work is important for patient safety. We celebrate one day of the year, i.e., 25 September, as World Pharmacist Day, in honor of these revolutionary pharmacists. The secretary of the organization asserted that the contribution of drug manufacturers is important while serving in the field of medicine, and their role is decisive for the safety of every moment while providing healthcare. Shrishakti Shaikshanik Sanstha, through the Devine College of Pharmacy, celebrated Pharmacist Day. As the chief guest at that time, Dr. Deepak Bhau Sonwane was speaking. Dr. Dhananjay M. Patil, the college principal, introduced the idea that everyone celebrates 25th September as Pharmacist Day to honor and salute the work of drug makers. In response to this, the pharmacy students urged others to consider a career in social work in the future. The pharmacy students visited various full-time medical stores in the city and honored the college by presenting the medical director with an honor badge.

This time, the program was attended by chemists and druggists from the Association of Respected Mr. Prakash Shewale, Mr. Pankaj Borse, Mr. Dinesh Pawra, and Ms. Manisha Deore; civil hospital members Dr. Godekar, Dr. Shashikant, and Dr. Bhagat; as well as the director of Apex Hospital, Dr. Pravin Khairnar, and Seema Khairnar. This time Dr. Chandrasekhar Patil, Prof. Shivraj Jadhav, Ganesh Sonwane, Student Development Board Officer Prof. Khemchand Surana, Yogesh Sharma, National Service Scheme Officer Ayaz Shah, event coordinators Mr. Jubershaha and Ms. Dipti Chavan, etc. Professors, non-teaching staff, and students from the college, along with the principal, Dr. Dhananjay M. Patil, were present. The organization's president, Hon. Dr. Apoorva Here, and secretary, Dr. Deepak Sonawane, guided.

Academic Year 2023-24

Date: 19/09/24-28/09/24

No. of Participants: 50

Venues: Divine Campus, Satana

Divine College of Pharmacy, Satana celebrated Ganesh festival in the campus from 19 Sept to 28 Sept 2023. Festival was successfully organized under National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Divine College of Pharmacy, to realize the concept of green Maharashtra and environment free Maharashtra, the college decided to take up a new initiative. The students of the college appealed to the residents of Satana to immerse the Ganesh idols in an artificial lake on Anant Chaturdashi instead of immersing them directly in the river bed. In accordance with this, an artificial lake was made in the college premises and outside the college also and many Ganesh idols were immersed in it and Nirmalya was collected. The students of National Service Scheme enthusiastically participated in this entire activity and 31 Ganesha idols were immersed in the whole activity. Also, the collected waste was made into a pit and converted into compost. Divine college of pharmacy, Satana really feel proud to be associated with this initiative to conduct such kind of activity should spread all over India. Near about 120 students and honorable principal Dr. D. M. Patil and Teaching staff, Non-teaching staff, HODs, Dr. C. D. Patil, Shivraj Jadhav, G. B. Sonawane, Khemchand Surana, Mayuri pol, Davange Madhuri, V. N. Sonawane sir and NSS coordinator Mr. Ayaz shah, Event coordinator Mr. Jubershaha Fakir were participated in event.
